P593 26 November 1638

Complaint by William, Bishop of Bath & Wells, to Lord Keeper, Coventry, that his predecessors had time out of mind possessed the rectory and parsonage of Compton Dando. Now Richard Harvey of St Martins, Middlesex has got possession of the rectory and collects the tithes and profits which are worth £100 p.a. [see Vol 400 No 40]. Richard Harvey claims he has an interest therein as an executor of Jeremy Harvey of Compton Dando, deceased, to whom he claims a lease was granted by a former bishop. Refuses to produce the lease, and the bishop doubts that it exists. Pray for Harvey to be summoned before the Court of Chancery to answer the charge or produce the lease.
